ABOUT ME

I am a highly motivated and enthusiastic photographer and retoucher committed to delivering results. I am very organised and able to problem solve whatever is thrown at me paired with patience in any given task and respect for not only my colleagues but whatever project I am working on. I am very keen and willing to learn.

I am able to take responsibility and leadership as and when required. I have a proven commitment to a successful team environment and aim to inspire and motivate those around me to triumph at any challenge.

I have leveraged extensive knowledge in my field through leading positions with companies such as Bonhams auctioneers and supported with a BA (Hons) Degree in photography.

I am able to manage my entire workflow from start to end fluidly. I am technically proficient in a variety of software and equipment. I have a range of skills that are both valuable and transferable to many positions within the photographic industry.
